• CHOICE LARGE CENTS

Price Fixed

1794 Sheldon 21 (H-5, C-5). The Flat Pole Variety, rather popular. A splendid light brown uncirculated coin. This is from the Dr. French Collection (#24) and cost $150.00 years ago. The Anderson Dupont specimen was only a 12. Worth $250.00.

1794 S.28 (#23). This is the Anderson Dupont specimen (Lot #37). "A nearly uncirculated example of the famous Ornate variety. Minute nick at rim opposite chin. Even brick-red color, most attractive." (Photo in Dupont catalogue.) $150.00.

1796 S.81 (Gilbert A). Popular Liberty Cap Cent, about extremely fine. This is the Dupont Specimen (Lot 110). Well centered and nicely balanced, with a lustrous even surface. Reverse fully EF and not far from uncirculated. Obverse the same but marred slightly by faint scratches across face and bust. (Photo in Dupont cat.) $150.00.

1797 S-135. (D.100, CN-18). A splendid uncirculated specimen, mint red. This is the Dr. French coin (#158) acquired out of the Lotus Sullivan Coll. (#378). The Dupont piece brought $255.00. This pedigreed cent easily worth $225.00.

1800 S.206 (D.152) The Dupont Coin (Lot 303). About extremely fine. Beautiful example of a variety hard to find in this condition. Evenly distributed wear on the highest surfaces. (Photo in Dupont cat.) $150.00.

1802. S.232 (D.168) The Dupont coin (Lot 374). Extremely fine, plus. A beautiful light olive coin, evenly blended with mint red, with only a slight trace of wear on the very highest points. A collector's piece. $47.50.

1802. S. 234 (N.12) LIBERTY far right. Very fine. An excellent coin, olive and steel, with nice lustre. Last stage of obverse die with strong break over BERT. One of best known. VF-20. $110.00.

1817. AN-10. Stars close to dote. AU-50. $11.00.

1831. AN-6. Uncirculoted, medium brown. $18.00.

1836. AN-1. EF-40. Advanced die breaks obverse and reverse. $14.00.

MAKE A COLLECTOR HAPPY

Just the other day, a collector friend brought over a few odds-and-ends, duplicates he no longer needed. What should he do with them?

"I can use this one for a WANT LIST customer," I said.

"Don't know that I particularly want to sell it. I thought I could trade it for something I need."

"That's a bit different. The fellow who has what you need may not want your coins."

"What's the answer?" he asked.

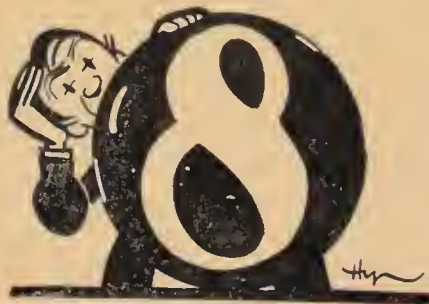

The answer is simple. Put your duplicates to work. Let the other fellow have a chance at them. If all collectors did this, you would have a better chance to get the coins you require.

That your coin may go up in value—that's not why you bought it. If you did, that wasnt collecting, that was speculating. Your speculation, your neighbor's and that of many other collectors, makes it difficult for a serious numismatist to acquire the coin he needs.

You can make a collector happy by disposing of your duplicates, and you'll also be helping yourself.

Send all your dupes, if you have any
You'll see that my plan clicks.

For in return, just that one penny
Might come from 456.

I'M SORRY

The demand for the Bulletin has overwhelmed us. No. 2 was "sold out" quickly. Many were disappointed, but we'll try to take care of everyone in the future.

ODE TO AN AUCTION BIDDER

I appreciate your BID SHEET
And the time it takes to write
It's a lot of work to enter.
And I cannot work all night.

Same send in Bids by Pages
Don't they know that it costs money?
My help insists on wages
So I cannot see what's funny.

If my estimate is Twenty
And you want to bid but six
Please drop it in the waste basket
Don't send to 456.

I don't mean to get high-brow—
If I haven't said it clearly
You don't have to bid my estimates
But gosh sakes—make it nearly!

Money Talks

A. Kosoff

KEEP IT UP. IT'S a dandy publication. I know its value to you and to collectors. More power to you—B. Max Mehl.

GLAD TO SEE THE Coin Bulletin again. Am interested in the following:—Ken Bailey.

ENCINO, says Clint Hester, is the way to spell it and the address in that fashion finds its way to Bax 456.

DO YOU KNOW that a $25.00 bill was issued by Canada in 1935? The occasion was the 25th anniversary of the accession of King George V, 1910-1935. It was to commemorate this jubilee that Canada issued its first silver dollar.

AL CRITES, a kindly soul, writes frequently from Sacramento. Always nice to get your letters, my friend.

NEW SECTIONAL groups in talking stages—West coast and East with latter a strong spring possibility.

DR. P. W. WHITELEY of Denver has been working on Colorado Issues. Information on Lesters, etc., will be welcomed by Doc.

PACIFIC COAST NUM. SOC. enjoying "revitalization" with many fine exhibits each month. It's nice to see the oldest West Coast coin club full of life again. Keep it up, boys.

ANDERSON DUPONT Sale a splendid offering, brought top prices. Coins are still going higher.

CANADIAN NUMIS. ASSN. issues Bulletins which are welcome indeed. Many bits of information concerning Canadian money—which is the "hot" series right now. Peter Favro is the capable editor.

L. W. HOFFECKER, Joseph Rovensky and Oliver Futter collections all in one big Quarterly Sale—yes, by B. Max Mehl. Nice catalogue by an old hand at it.

TWO MILLION DOLLARS daily being burned by Bank of Canada as the old currency is being replaced by new issues.

POOR OLD BRUNO Crossfield keeps giving S. F. Collectors a kick—always good for a chuckle.

AMERICAN NUMISMATIC SOCIETY opens new room featuring Decorations and Medallion Art with talks by my old friend "Professor" Henry Grunthal and Dr. R. E. Giese.

CONGRATULATIONS. IT'S JUST like old times having the BULLETIN in the mails again. The new format and contents are every bit as good as the old. . . Father Catich.

DEAR A.K. You've done it again. Thousands of collectors appreciate it! Kosoff's Coin Bulletin really hits the spot . . . that friendly get-together page of "Money Talks" belongs to you, exclusively, A.K. "Lang may yer lum reek." F. H. Thompson.

(couldn't have said it better myself, Fred.)

BEBEES TO HANDLE Omaha sale next year—a fine couple; good luck, Aubrey and Adeline.

L. G. BARNARD asks (November Numismatist) about the $3.00 1875 and 1876, stating 20 and 30 struck respectively. I wonder??? Having handled an 1875 twelve times in the last fifteen years, is it likely only 20 were struck???

LIFE MEMBERS—Welcome Dave Karp, G. C. Criswell and Dr. Cloin-Stefanelli. Reminds me of the Life Members Club we had when Lean Beet was ANA Prexy—and the swell party we ran at Buffalo engineered by Charlie Ryan and Sal Kaplan.

CHICAGO COIN CLUB continues annual exhibits which attract many. Ted Pokorney chairman'd this year's show.

GARLAND STEPHENS tickled with Exhibit Award at MANA Convention. Nice work, G.S.

LEO YOUNG VISITS, scouting for loot for auction in Berkeley next spring.

WANTED: REFER TO Bulletin No. 2 (October, page 23) for a list of coins needed for special collectors. We still need many of the items—and others. So if you have coins for sale, send them to me for prompt action.

A.(Cash and carry)K.
